

Lexia Core5 Reading: Expanded Use and Impact Over 5 Years in Utah

Utah's Early Intervention Reading Software Program

This initiative allows schools to select computer-based reading programs to supplement classroom learning in grades K–3.

Over 5 years, Utah students showed more consistent use of Core5 than any other program.

The most selected

Core5 has been implemented more often than all other programs

The most used

Nearly 50% of Utah's K–3 students used Core5 in 2019–2020

The most effective

Students using Core5 have consistently had the largest year-over-year reading gains in grades K–1

For copies of the Utah Early Intervention Reading Software Program Reports, please see the Utah State Board of Education website <https://www.schools.utah.gov/>

Core5 was the only program to show a consistent relationship between meeting usage targets and higher literacy scores for Utah students across grades.
